

Hard to Kill

Autumn Burning

The alarm clock's telling me to go back to sleep
Today just ain't worth waking up for
I look out my front door, and it's pouring down rain
It seems to me, I've seen this cloud before

You should know by now
It'll take so much more, to put me in the ground

And I will bend, but I won't break
You have seen how much I can take
Don't you know, I'm stronger than steel
And don't you know, that I'm, I'm hard to kill

Light another cigarette as I stand
Put another cold beer in my hand
God, I can't wait for this day to end
So I can wake up and do it all again

You should know by now
It'll take so much more, to put me in the ground

And I will bend, but I won't break
You have seen how much I can take
Don't you know, I'm stronger than steel
And don't you know, that I'm, I'm hard to kill

And I will bend, but I won't break
You have seen how much I can take
Don't you know, I'm stronger than steel
And don't you know, that I'm, I'm hard to

Now don't you know, that I'm, stronger than steel
And don't you know
