Wild Angels

Magnum

Nobodys leaving
This world tonight
The way Im feeling
Well be all right
So many people
Going nowhere
The poor forsaken
Nobody caresI wonder what youre thinking
I dont know where you are
Cant stop my heart from sinking
Before it gets too farWild angels in the sky, baby
Diamonds fall like rain
Nobody told you why, baby
Isnt that a shame?The room is empty
The city sleeps
We pass by gently
And shadows creep
But come tomorrow
Theres no relief
And Im still looking
In disbeliefI wonder what youre thinking
I dont know where you are
Cant stop my heart from sinking
Before it gets too farWild angels in the sky, baby
Thunder in the air
Dont let it make you cry, baby
You wont have a prayerSomething out of nothing
Tell me if Im right
Stranded here forever
Take me home tonight
Maybe let it happen
Keep it in your mind
Maybe theres no answer
Dont get left behindWild angels in the sky, baby
Diamonds fall like rain
Nobody told you why, baby
Isnt that a shame?Wild angels in the sky, baby
Thunder in the air
Dont let it make you cry, baby

You wont have a prayer
