

Nothing's gonna take my love

OLIVIA inspi' REIRA (TRAPNEST)

In the city I watch glamour shows
Through the windows of skyscraping expectations
Brainwash dreaming black and white
Setting up the surface with very shiny toys
Time goes by, make-up doesn't cover it
What will you do now?
Now that you've lost it
Hope you have a back up plan
Nothing's gonna take my love
Nothing's gonna take my love
I built my life underneath
The fiery storms can't reach me
Nothing's gonna take my love
Nothing's gonna take my love
Beneath runs a stream that connects with the ocean unbound
What you are looking for
What you are looking for
What you are looking for
You sparked your interior into a blaze and Frantically threw a lightening bolt at me
Sweet of you to invite me to your chaotic spectacle
You've waken the little moths in my blood stream
Fluttering, makes it hard to understand
I wait till they calm down
Till they are sleeping
So I can see again
Nothing's gonna take my love
Nothing's gonna take my love
My wink flashes and I'll give you a grin
I don't let it get into me
Nothing's gonna take my love
Nothing's gonna take my love
Everything above is shifting constantly
But inside it will never go away
Never go away
Never go away
Nothing's gonna take my love
Nothing's gonna take my love
I built my life underneath
The fiery storms can't reach me
Nothing's gonna take my love
Nothing's gonna take my love
Beneath runs a stream that connects with the ocean unbound
What you are looking for
What you are looking for
What you are looking for
