Time Shall Tell - Single

Dizzy Dee

Ohhhhhhhh
Na, na na, na, na, ey
(Lionriddims)

(Intro)
I wake up in the morning feeling kinda low
It feels like the system pressure we some more
Even when hard times keep knocking on my door
All I do is just watch the clock

Coz Time Shall Tell!
Time Shall Tell
Time Shall Tell
Time Shall Tell

(Verse 1)
They'll never see we fading, they'll never see me fall.
They'll never see we fading, no matter who them are.
They can't corrupt the ghetto youths, can't trick us anymore.
Can't take away mi life or my roots and my culture.
Too long we a suffer inna babylon
They thought they silenced our generation
But another one is rising
Strap up your boot inna di gideon
And lets walk together in this here revolution

(Time Shall Tell) Every human being is treated equal and your colour doesn't matter anymore.
(Time Shall Tell) All nations unite under the sun to create a better place
(Time Shall Tell) One destiny, one cause
(Shall Tell) One love and one heart
(Time Shall Tell) One aim and one thought
(Shall Tell) To create a better place.

(Verse 2)
So tell me can this world sustain another billion people
When the rich study evil
And through religion (there's) a lot of blood shedding in the world, my heart cried for the children.
Hey, don't say theres no solution, for any situation
All we need is more love and care and unity... in this world.

(Time Shall Tell) Education shall be free for all
Babylon shall meet thier downfall
(Time Shall Tell) No corruption and no greed at all
Politics will be abandoned
(Time Shall Tell) No greens and no labour
(Shall Tell) No evil prime minister
(Time Shalll Tell) It could be a reality
(Shall Tell) Only time shall tell

Envision life should be the same for everyone
Weather you rich or weather you poor or weather you middle class.
Black, white or yellow, anywhere you come from
We still bleed the same blood, blood, blood

I wake up in the night with tears in my eyes
It feels like the system pressure we so much
When dark clouds keep hanging on my door
All I do is just watch the clock

(Time Shall Tell) Every human being is treated equal and your colour doesn't matter anymore.
(Time Shall Tell) All nations unite under the sun to create a better place
(Time Shall Tell) One destiny, one cause
(Shall Tell) One love and one heart
(Time Shall Tell) One aim and one thought
(Shall Tell) To create a better place.

Time shall Tell...

(Verse 1)
They'll never see we fading, they'll never see me fall.
They'll never see we fading, no matter who them are.
They can't corrupt the ghetto youths, can't trick us anymore.
Can't take away mi life or my roots and my culture. (Huh!)
Too long we a suffer inna babylon
They thought they silenced our generation
But another one is rising
Strap up your boot inna di gideon
And lets walk together in this here revolution

(Time Shall Tell) Woke up this morning, feeling kinda low
It seems like babylon keeps on pressuring we
(Time Shall Tell) Dont kno what to do
(Shall Tell) But to keep watching the clock
(Time Shall Tell) I know that time shall tell, time shall tell.
