

Addicted to You

Beds and Beats

I feel like dancing on my own
I shut the curtains
Don't answer the phone
I turn on the music
And pour you a drink
Now my thoughts are swimming
I'm starting to sink
Now you say you hurt me
And I know that you do
I just don't want it
I push you away
'Cause I know that it's true

You think I'm crazy
You don't know no more
But you don't know crazy
If crazy is leaving you begging for more
I've been a servant to your love
You just unfold me
Tear me up
I've planned my escape
And there's nothing that no-one can do
'Cause I'm just addicted to you

Day turns to night
And I call out your name
Life keeps on moving
But I stay the same
I'm searching for answers
I know I won't find
Promise you'll guide me
Don't leave me behind

Now you say you hurt me
And I know that you do
I just don't want it
I push you away
'Cause I know that it's true
You think I'm crazy

You don't know no more
But you don't know crazy
If crazy is leaving you begging for more
I've been a servant to your love
You just unfold me
Tear me up
I've planned my escape
And there's nothing that no-one can do
'Cause I'm just addicted to you
