

Love Itself

Leonard Cohen

The light came through the window
Straight from the sun above
And so inside my little room
There plunged the rays of love In streams of light I clearly saw
The dust you seldom see,
Out of which the nameless makes
A name for one like me I'll try to say a little more
Love went on and on
Until it reached an open door
Then love itself
Love itself was gone All busy in the sunlight
The flecks did float and dance
And I was tumbled up with them
In formless circumstance I'll try to say a little more
Love went on and on
Until it reached an open door
Then love itself
Love itself was gone Then I came back from where I'd been
My room, it looked the same
But there was nothing left between
The nameless and the name All busy in the sunlight
The flecks did float and dance
And I was tumbled up with them
In formless circumstance I'll try to say a little more
Love went on and on
Until it reached an open door
Then love itself
Love itself was gone
Love itself
Love itself was gone
