Promises (1996 Remastered Version)

Buzzcocks

Ah, loving you is easy, you are on my side
We play the game strictly to our rules
We led the field, a love affair
Which made all other lovers foolsOh
How can you ever let me down? (how)
How can you ever let me down? (how)
How can you ever let me down?
These promises are made for us (oh-oh)We promised that we'd always have time for each other
Whenever I needed you'd be there
We promised to be true, there'd be no other
We promised that for ever we would careOh
How can you ever let me down? (how)
How can you ever let me down? (how)
How can you ever let me down?
These promises are made for us (oh-oh)We had to change
Oh, but you stayed the same
You wouldn't change
Oh, what a shame'Cause loving you's not easy, you're not on my side
We play a game with two sets of rules
We lead the field in a love affair
Ah, strictly meant for foolsOh
Why did you ever let me down? (now)
Why did you ever let me down? (now)
Why did you ever let me down?
Those promises were made for us (oh-oh)You never have any time for me
Whenever I need you, you're not there
You've never been true and it's plain to see
The fact is you never really caredOh
Why did you ever let me down? (now)
Why did you ever let me down? (now)
Why did you ever let me down?
Those promises we made for us (oh-oh)

Songwriters
Steve Diggle, Pete ShelleyPublished by Lyrics Â© Universal Music Publishing Group

Lyrics provided by
https://damnlyrics.com/