Speak for Myself

Aly & AJ

Do you see me? Do you care? You talk about me Like I'm not thereDon't get a word in When you're around I bet you don't know What I'm about'Cause I will, I will speak for myself What you see isn't all I am I need a place to standI will, I will speak for myself There's so much you're missing If you cared you'd listenYou suffocate me You drown me out I'm tired of waiting Without a doubtI feel I'm fading I flicker out My heart is screaming Without a sound, yeah'Cause I will, I will speak for myself What you see isn't all I am I need a place to standI will, I will speak for myself There's so much you're missing If you cared you'd listenI'm not sorry for who I am Take it or leave it It's my time to take a stand Throw it or keep it Know that I don't need to understand Won't say it again(I will, I will, I will, I will) You know I will'Cause I will, I will speak for myself What you see isn't all I am I need a place to standI will, I will speak for myself There's so much you're missing If you cared you'd listen
