Voodoo Too

Godsmack

I'm not the one who's so far away
I'm not the one who's so far awayOpen your eyes, a chill passes you by
A premonition coming strong
Rich with desire, superstition in disguise
Draws me into where I belongHave you ever wondered why
In a dream you can touch a fallen sky?
Or fly to the heavens that watch over you
Telling me it's a voodoo, voodoo tooIn, still the body, so warm with every breath
Dance to a vision so seductive
Rain down upon me, cleanses me with every drip
A send you promised for the nourishment that I've been giftedHave you ever wondered why
In a dream you can touch a fallen sky?
Or fly to the heavens that watch over you
Telling me it's a voodooHave you ever wondered why
In a dream you can touch a fallen sky?
Or fly to the heavens that watch over you
Telling me it's a voodoo, voodoo too
It's all voodoo tooHave you ever wondered why
In a dream you can touch a fallen sky?
Or fly to the heavens that watch over you
Telling me it's a voodooHave you ever wondered why
In a dream you can touch a fallen sky?
Or fly to the heavens that watch over you
Telling me it's a voodoo, voodoo tooIt's just voodoo too, it's all voodoo too
It's just what you do, oh, yeah, voodoo too
