

Your Husband Is Cheatin' On Us

Denise LaSalle

Hey lady
Honey, your husband is cheatin on us
Hey Lady
Honey, your husband is cheating on us
I know you thought you had a good man
thought you had a man that you could trust

He used to come to my house when he wanted to play around but now he's finding his pleasures on the other side of town

Hey lady, honey, your husband is cheatin on us
i know you thought you had a good man

He borrows my car, leaves me stranded on my feet while he and his other woman ride all up and down the street

Hey lady...
Honey, your husband is cheatin on us
I know you thought you had a good man,

the lies he used to tell you, I know them all too well but now he's lying to me, girl, and that's why I'm gonna tell

Hey lady, HONEY, your husband is cheating on us
I know you thought you had a good man,

oh yeah.
.Here's another thing
he's got too many women, now somebody's got to go but before I bow out gracefully I'll tell everything I know

Hey lady
Honey, your husband is cheatin on us

I know you thought you had a good man

Girl, he's lying to me, he's lying to you it won't be too long before he'll be lying to her too Hey lady...he's a no good dirty cheatin man

I know you thought you had a good man

he's lying he's a cheater he's dirty a no good , a low down and dirty man

Hey lady
Your husband is cheatin on us
I know you thought you had a good man, had a good man that you could trust

Lady, he's just no good, he's dirty, he's just a cheatin man
