Missing You

BeauDamian

Honey looking so sweet, Baseball camp on 5th street. Nothing like a bounce bed (Bounce, fall, bounce.) Just a Teddy begging, (know you wanna.) Ain't nothing Like my hometown. Blew up here and I'm so proud, No matter where I go in the world. Coming back to you.

Oh you'll lay on your couch on Fridays, After visiting your mom's place. And she still treats me like you're 8 years old, but you know you love it that shit never gets old. Ain't nothing like my city, Bright lights just look so pretty. No matter where I go in the world, I'll be missing you.

(Yeah)

(I'll be missing yo- ya)

(I'll be missing yo- ya)

I can see us both full, central packin pretzels. Finally coming over, every Sunday night. only wanna do it one time but, and I know you'll like stay the morning cause.

Ain't nothing Like my hometown. Blew up here and I'm so proud, No matter where I go in the world. I'm coming back to here.

Oh you'll lay on your couch on Fridays, After visiting your mom's place. And she still treats me like you're 8 years old, but you know you love it that shit never gets old. Ain't nothing like my city, Bright lights just look so pretty. No matter where I go in the world, I'll be missing you.

(Yeah)

(I'll be missing yo- ya)

(I'll be missing yo- ya)

Ain't nothing Like my hometown. Blew up here and I'm so proud, No matter where I go in the world. I'm coming back to here, cause. Ain't nothing like my city, bright lights just look so pretty. No matter where I go in the world, I'll be missing you. Missing you.
