

Been Around The World

Bobby Brown

Yeah, uh

Tour to tour, been around the world so many time
It kinda scares me you know
That I've seen so many people, met so many people
Seen so many faces, forgot so many faces
But it's yours, baby, it's yours
I sit, wondering to myself, what was God waiting on
Let me tell you something
Listen, baby
Lately, I can't sleep at night
'Cause constantly you're on my mind
Have I found in you
What no one else could do to me?
Turn me on to something else
I just can't believe myself
That you're inside my system
And my self control is gone
But girl, it feels so good
Been around the world
And I've seen so many girls
But it's you, baby, on my mind
I've been so many places
And, yes, I've seen so many faces
But it's yours, baby, on my mind
Is it my imagination or could be
Something got a hold of me?
And I think that you're the reason
For the smile that's on my face

(Yes)

Now girl, can you promise me
That you just take it easy on my heart?

Will never part for the rest of our life?

And oh, I feels so good
Been around the world
And I've seen so many girls
But it's you, baby, on my mind
I've been so many places
And, yes, I've seen so many faces

But it's yours, baby, on my mind
Is it me on your mind?
(Yeah)
Is it you on my mind?
(Don't lie)
Yes, you're all on my mind
Boy, that's for sure
And, oh, it feels so good
Been around the world
And I've seen so many girls
But it's you, baby, on my mind
I've been so many places
And, yes, I've seen so many faces
But it's yours, baby, on my mind
I don't want nobody else, baby
I don't need nobody else, girl
I don't want nobody else, baby
I don't need nobody else, girl
I don't want nobody else, baby
I don't need nobody else, girl
