

No-One Understands

Space

I'm a man and you're a man and we don't understand
Why the world is such a funny shape it is so bland
If I wanted to kill or assassinate the queen
They would only lock me up and throw away the key Then you'd never get out
Then you'd never get in No one understands me
No one understands
No one understands me
No one understands If I wanted to be someone I think I would be
Margaret thatcher she's so cool I think she should be queen
Now if you should agree with this then I think you should be Hung and drawn and quartered and then thrown into the sea And then you'd never get out
Because you can't swim No one understands me
No one understands
No one understands me
No one understands No one understands me
No one understands
No one understands me
No one understands No one understands me
No one understands
No one under, no one under
No one understands me No one understands me
No one understands
No one under, no one under
No one understands me
