

The Sparrows And The Nightingales (Long Version)

Wolfsheim

how long have you been free in this world of hate and greed is it black or is it white let's find another compromise and our future's standing still we're dancing in the spotlight where is the leader who leads me i'm still waiting ... leaving home ...
and god is on your side dividing sparrows from the nightingales watching all the time dividing water from the burning fire ... inside
and god is on your side dividing cruelty from tenderness
watching all the time
dividing fiction from reality move in circles walk on lines no human being in sight calm the winds and calm the seas let's try another kind of peace who fights this holy civil war a million men in uniform wo ist der fÃ¼hrer der mich fÃ¼hrt? ich warte immer noch ...!
and god is on your side
dividing presence from our history
watching all the time
dividing deaf men from the listening ones leave a light on in the night for me, that i can find you remember when we both where young and reckless and so curious ... now you're hiding from your child ... a new day's dawning remember that you felt alive, sometimes ...
and god is on your side
dividing soldiers from the fisherman
watching all the time
dividing warships from the ferryboats

Songwriters

HEPPNER, PETER/REINHARDT, MARKUS/PERON, CARLOPublished by

Lyrics © Warner/Chappell Music, Inc. Song Discussions is protected by U.S. Patent 9401941. Other patents pending.

Lyrics provided by <https://damnyrics.com/>