

Small Window

Yves Jean

I have this friend and she only want a superstar
In her mind she thinks this will take her far
Nothing can convince her other than his platinum card
This is how her story will unfold

Does she know ..she has a small window ?
Wasting time the window will be closed
All the guys and all the lies and all the promises
Does she even know ..She has a small window?

To no surprise she get hurt every time
Tries to live her life like a princess in a fairy tale passes up any guy who doesn't fit the bill
Self absorbed in themselves never long term

Does she know ..she has a small window ?
Wasting time the window will be closed
All the guys and all the lies and all the promises
Does she even know ..She has a small window?

Watch you inflict pain upon yourself your heart is broken in two over and over time after time
They'll be nothing left to break anymore
This is my warning
Cause I care about you
You gotta help yourself
You know what to do
One last thing I need ask you
What do you know about a â€

Does she know ..she has a small window ?
Wasting time the window will be closed
All the guys and all the lies and all the promises
Does she even know ..She has a small window?

Watch you

Watch you

Watch you

Watch you

Lyrics submitted by Josh Woodard.

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnllyrics.com/>