

Satisfied

Cee Lo Green

Baby, where's the road taking us?
And maybe that's why they call it making love
Darling, I will do my best
I'm falling at the feet of your highness
Don't need to ask, the answer's always, 'Yes'
Ooh, well, the least I can do is try
I want you to think you're satisfied
Oh, let me satisfy you
The least I can do is try
I want you to think you're satisfied
Oh, let me satisfy you
Baby, baby, baby, just wait and see
Maybe, maybe, it just takes a little faith in me
A friend of mine followed my lead
He wanted to make sure that I succeed
A little encouragement is all I'll need, oh yeah
Ooh, well, the least I can do is try
I want you to think you're satisfied
Oh, let me satisfy you
The least I can do is try
I want you to think you're satisfied
Oh, let me satisfy you
Ooh, I wanna satisfy you, you, you
I wanna satisfy you, you, you
I wanna satisfy you, you, you, ooh
Now the least I can do is try
I want you to think you're satisfied
Oh, let me satisfy you, let me satisfy you
The least I can do is try, the least I could do is try
I want you to think you're satisfied
Oh, let me satisfy you, let me satisfy you
(I gotta satisfy you)
The least I can do is try
(I wanna satisfy you, baby)
I want you to think you're satisfied
Oh, let me satisfy you, let me satisfy you
The least I can do is try, the least I could do is try
I want you to think you're satisfied
Oh, let me satisfy you, let me satisfy you, ah
