

Sensitivity

Worn-Tin

Sensitivity

(1st Verse)

Meet me in the backseat

Tell me that you love me

Please just be so caring to know that Iâ€™m here

Know your limitations, before things start to fade and

Never let me know or please just be kind

Tell me when youâ€™re angry, ROCK YOU Just So Gently

I just need to know, know that you are mine

Borderline Neurotic, Seamless and Psychotic

I get home exhausted from hums N Some Rings

(Chorus 1)

All My Sensitivity Never let it get to me,

Grabs me like a cavity, Brings me to a tragedy

Show Me Hospitality, Sorry for the fantasy

I just want to know you for a long, long time.

(Twelve-String Solo)

(2nd verse)

Treat me like a brother

Climb under the covers

You always make him wonder

If you love him

He treats you with perfection,

I guess itâ€™s more complex than

Things that make my head spin... All of the time

(Chorus 2)

Itâ€™s all that sensitivity, Always seems to get to me

Throws me up like gravity, all built up inside of me

Takes me to a fantasy, works just like a factory

Makes me do things that I shouldnâ€™t do

(Bridge)

And when I get you alone, weâ€™re out on the town

But lately I feel you donâ€™t want me around

P-P-P- Prancing around, around the Sycamore Tree

I need somebody to help me, to set me free

Oh ah oh ah
