

Faceless

Threat Signal

Dawn the face of a new generation
The revision of life is here
Born into segregation
Second guess the existence of you

Falling into the hell below
Not understanding the reason why

Punish the weak
To release all the hate inside
Thine eyes are so bleak
Your intentions seem to
Drive us in the ground

There is nothing left to breathe for
This life was dead before it began
Not it's time to accept the end

Taken the life from the
One that created you
Holding the knife, unleash
The rage that's been haunting you

Nothing seems to change
Your life has slipped away
Fallen within

Silenced bound enslaved
Your locked away
Rotting within

As time slips away
The cage will rust
Life will go on
As you fall to dust
