Vampire

Death SS

It's time! I've returned back to life again tonight.
My short length life consecrated to evil...For so many years every night I leave my coffin and with my bats I'm transformed into a bloodsucker looking for your blood.Every night I sow the terror and before sunrise I leave the hot sign of my kiss of death.You common mortals can't fight against my curse and of your lives I become the only master until I will see you bleeding.
I've been immortal for such a long time for centuries I am the king but cross and garlic can bring me fear.Yes, I'm the vampire, the king of the night Yes, I'm the evil, I am the master of your nightmares.I am the vampire, the prince of darkness I am the devil who craves the blood of the human race.Come with me in the reign of night taste the flavour of red-hot blood Enjoy yourself in doing evil and sit with me at the left of the Devil.Leave your troubles out of your life to suck men's lymph you must be able and when nightime brings you back among the living you will fly as an immortal, screaming your fury.
