

I Wanna Be

Adelitas Way

Advisory - the following lyrics contain explicit language:

I wanna be the one who's catching all the luck
Sitting on a mountain of a million bucks
It's time I get a taste of the hollywood life
Sleeping all day and getting drunk all night
Can I be the one getting all the free shit
Hanging out with Hef and got my house on cribs
If I could have a chance to be living this way
I will show you all that I'm not the same Famous for nothing, Your not above me
Your going to end up coming down
Coming down when your done
Famous for nothing, A loser that got lucky
Your going to end up coming down
Coming down when your done I wanna be the one with hundreds in my hand
Sitting right by the big strong man
It's time I start seeing things go my way
Sipping on some drag and a bottle of crank
Can I be the one with thirty-two cars
Sitting backstage with all the rockstars
I wanna be the one that told you so
Middle finger up screaming fuck the world Famous for nothing, Your not above me
Your going to end up coming down
Coming down when your done
Famous for nothing, A loser that got lucky
Your going to end coming down
Coming down when your done Famous for shit
Why don't you quit
You got it all so why can't I (x2) Famous for nothing, Your not above me
Your going to end up coming down
Coming down when your done
Famous for nothing, A loser that got lucky
Your going to end up coming down
Coming down when your done
