

Trees (Album Version)

Marty Casey & Lovehammers

I don't want to go through this life
Without you, by my side
And I-I-I, got it all worked out
In my head, is all it got to be It'll be you and me
Up in the trees
And the forest will give us the answer
It'll be you and I
Up in the sky
It's a combination for disaster We, we make believe
In a world we rule together
We-e-e-e, can build our dreams
With a knot tied tight
To last forever And it'll be you and me
Up in the trees
And the forest will give us the answer
It'll be you and I
Up in the sky
It's a combination for disaster Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah yeah, yeah
We got one shot
So let's use our imaginations Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah yeah, yeah
You're all that I've got
So where do we go from he-e-e-re And It'll be you and me
Up in the trees
And the forest will give us the answer
It'll be you and I
Up in the sky
It's a combination for disaster And I know
There's more for us in this life
If we hold on
If we hold strong And I know
There's more for us in this life
Can we hold on
Can we hold on
