

Because I Love You

The Electric Cowboys

They say that all good things must end Love is no exception
I learned it from experience when I lost her to deception
I hope one day she'll understand
It was all a bad mistake
She asked why I should be her man this is what I had to say

Because I love you Because I need you Because I'm sorry
I didn't mean too Because I trust you Someday you'll trust me too Until then I'll spend each day and night proving my love to you

Understand me baby, for one night of regret I'll give you the world, make it up to you, help you to forget you might not want to hear this now, but listen to what I say I mean ever word of it, and I'll show you every day

-chorus-

Porque te quiero, es que te extraño Aunque te encuentres en otros brazos Porque te espero, siempre pensando en ti Esperando en el moment que tu regresaras ha mi ha mi yeah!
