

We All Blow Up

Michael Flynn

Where will you be, when the nothing comes for me
Her son was taken by the sea, his sacrifice will set her free
It's been so long, I'm incomplete
you have my heart but it doesn't beat
I blew it up so no one else could have it
I ruined it for someone else
You're just a tool for me you killed the part no one can see
It's been so long, I'm incomplete
You couldn't make me stay, we're better off to end this way
'Cause you know
When there's a fire we'll all blow up
When there's a war we'll all grow up
By my own hand, I will be free
