

If I Don't Sing

Anthony Green

I been having trouble making some decisions
About the smallest changes in my life.
But I haven't got the slightest bit of intuition
Helping me to figure out what's right. And I'll always be unhappy, one way or the other
I'll always be unhappy if I don't sing. I been realizing something big has changed
Something that will go on home my way.
And all I've got to do is run 'round in the rain
Gather up perspective from that hail. And I'll always be unhappy, one way or the other
I'll always be unhappy if I don't sing.
And I'll always be unhappy, one way or the other
I'll always be unhappy if I don't sing.
