

Alex Kidd

This Ascension

wish I could have seen the expression on your face you picked up the phone you heard my voice faintly hesitant at first,
then with courage
you allowed "I love you" Oh, sometimes
you need time away
to realize the love
to acknowledge
what you're thinking of
good thing for us
a short journey can't compare to the lengths our love will last for wherever we go
no matter how much time's elapsed we'll still have each other to come back to Oh, sometimes
you need time away
to acknowledge
what you're thinking of
