

High

Ledisi

Light that reflects in the mirror
Showing the essence of who I am
Made from pure perfection
I'm connected to the one, therefore I am One to rise above all the ugliness
Evolve into a world of selflessness
I can see love and no love can be higher than this
What can be higher than this? What can be higher than this?
What can be higher than this?
What can be higher than this?
You will find love, and no love can be higher than this Feeling like everything going wrong
Take a step back and edit yourself
There's a hero in you waitin' to happen
Make the choice to take a chance and save yourself
You gotta let go of your insecurity
Explore the passion in your possibilities
You will find love and no love can be higher than this
What can be higher than this? Love, ain't nobody love me like you do
So I gotta tell the world that
You are in everything that I do Ain't nobody love me like you do
There's no love more higher than this
What can be higher than this?
Uh, uh, higher than this I need someone to tell me
'Cause I don't see nothing else more
(Uh, uh, uh, uh, higher than this)
Don't nobody know the love that I feel right now
What can be higher than this?
There's no love more higher than this
What can be higher than this?
You will find love See all you got to do is just let him in
(You will find love)
Anything you dream of is gonna to happen
(You will find love)
Just let it go There's no love more higher than this
What can be higher than this?
Love, ain't nobody love me like you do
So I gotta tell the world that you are in everything that I do Ain't nobody love me like you do
There's no love more higher than this
What can be higher than this?
What can be higher than this? What can be higher than this?

What can be higher than this?
What can be higher than this?
What can be higher than this?What can be higher than this?
What can be higher than this?
What can be higher than this?
What can be higher than this?
