

Yr Go To

Architecture In Helsinki

Advisory - the following lyrics contain explicit language:

Ready or not, could this be true
I feel the same vibration when I'm yr go to I'm yr go to Chains are broken, we were livin' in doubt
It took a sentimental melody to figure it out
I was the drama you wanted, way back when I throw my hat back in the meadow, can we do it again
All over? Now that senti people understand
What it means to be the lover in the palm of your hand
I took a chance on rhythm, it passed me by
And it'll only stop beating if you keep askin' me why Don't be complacent, we need to let go Chains are broken, people livin' in doubt
It took a sentimental moment to figure it out
Melody, it set me free on the other side Don't be complacent, we need to let go And disguise is somebody older
Catching fire right before I told ya
Oh, oh, oh, oh, oh, oh
In the sky begging for approval
Makin' out on a cloud that moves in Slow, oh, oh, slow, oh, oh When we [Incomprehensible] me and you
I feel the same sensation go, ago Ready or not, could this be true?
I feel the same vibration go, ago
Ready or not, could this be true?
I feel the same vibration when I'm, I'm yr go to I'm yr go to
