

Eloise

Tino Casal

Yesterday, I was all alone
Nobody called on the telephone
    Yeah, I was down
But now things are changin'
    I met a girl with a 45
        Drive in, sister
        Hunky dory eyes
    Satellite of love, infatuation
    So put your suitcase in my car
        Bring a pocket full of stars
    I love you for who you are, Eloise
    You always say what I wanna hear
    Speak the truth and it's loud and clear
Oh yeah, you lifted me up from my desolation
    I won't be lookin' the other way

At pretty things that may pass my way
I've straight ahead now with no complications
    So put your suitcase in my car
        Bring a pocket full of stars
    I love you for who you are, Eloise
    Well, I don't know what I'm doin'
    But I know that I ain't doin' without you
        'Cause I know what I believe in
And I know that I ain't leavin' without you, Eloise
    So put your suitcase in my car
        Bring a pocket full of stars
    I love you for who you are, Eloise
    Yeah, put your suitcase in my car
        Bring a pocket full of stars
I love you for who you are, Eloise, now Eloise
