Through Tomorrow

Seasons After

Another crossroad I have come upon today
I'll choose my own path
I'll choose my own path
You thought me ignorant; I swam in your disdain
I was your lab rat
But I won't take that

Hold your breath and close your eyes
As you're walking down the line
Innocence will pull us through
And I will be just fine

Make up your mind
Decide to walk against the wind
Divine design
We get to live again
We live again

Those cryptic messages that come from long ago
Are inconsistent
They're inconsistent
Against all that we are and everything we know
You will not get it
You just don't get it

Hold your breath and close your eyes
As you're walking down the line
Innocence will pull us through
And I will be just fine

Make up your mind
Decide to walk against the wind
Divine design
We get to live again
We live again

Come back
I wish I didn't do all the things that I
Do bad
Ripping the inner sanctity of me

Contact
Will restore the peace that we all seek
In me

Hold your breath and close your eyes
As you're walking down the line
Innocence will pull us through
And I will be just fine

Make up your mind
Decide to walk against the wind
Divine design
We get to live again
We live again

Live through tomorrow
We get to walk against the wind

You had the thing that made me feel close to
You had the thing that made me feel close to life
