If You've Got a Heart

Chad & Jeremy

I'd like to know if you can cry
I'd like to see a tear in your eye
I think you enjoy tearing me apart
I'd like to know if you've got a heartTrue love won't change, so I am told
But one day you're warm, the next day you're cold
I'm tired of you tearing me apart
I'd like to know if you've got a heartI think that you're using me
Till you find someone new
But if you wait too long
You'll have to find me tooMake up your mind, then let me know
Tell me you're mine or leave me alone
I'm tired of you tearing me apart
I'd like to know if you've got a heart
