True Love Leaves No Traces

Leonard Cohen

As the mist leaves no scar On the dark green hill So my body leaves no scar On you and never willThrough windows in the dark The children come, the children go Like arrows with no target Like shackles made of snowTrue love leaves no traces If you and I are one It's lost in our embraces Like stars against the sunAs a falling leaf may rest A moment on the air So your head upon my breast So my hand upon your hairAnd many nights endure Without a moon or star So will we endure When one is gone and farTrue love leaves no traces If you and I are one It's lost in our embraces Like stars against the sun
