

Perfect Timing

Bad Love Junkie

All un-tucked from a late night binge
Look, the ass is drunk again!
I say, So fucking what
I'd knock that smile off your old mans face
If it didn't mean losing all grace in your eyes
I didn't mean to barge right in
But I just had to see you againAnd it was
 Perfect timing
 Giving up on me
Cause you were sick of fighting
 What could and shouldn't be
 And baby I don't mind
 If it takes all night
 Cause it's just perfect timing
For us to get it rightLet your friends talk shit about me
 They'll take shit and we'll just be happy
 Let's get on my motor bike
 Baby let's just run all night
 L.A. or Miami you choose
 Yes, I know it's dangerous
And that's just the kind of love you needAnd it's just
 Perfect timing
 For you to break your plans
 And it's just perfect timing
 To say that I'm your man
 Cause baby I don't mind
 Putting up a fight
 Cause it's just perfect timing
 For us to get it right
