

Anchor to Ankles

Plague Vendor

Hearts get stuck in the ocean

Souls get lost at sea

Sailors and the pirates they walk the plank

But Davy Jones' locker ain't got nothing on me

Ain't got nothing

You saw a treasure only six feet deep

You dropped your anchor straight down just to get it

You saw a treasure only six feet deep

You dropped your anchor straight down just to get it

You saw a treasure only six feet deep

You dropped your anchor straight down just to get it

You saw a treasure only six feet deep

You dropped your anchor straight down just to get it

You saw a treasure only six feet deep

You dropped your anchor straight down just to get it

You saw a treasure only six feet deep

You dropped your anchor straight down just to get it

You saw a treasure only six feet deep

You dropped your anchor straight down just to get it

You saw a treasure only six feet deep

You dropped your anchor straight down just to get it
