I Believe In You

Black Dub

Advisory - the following lyrics contain explicit language:

From where I was standing
It was hard to see, hard to see
But what has always been
Will forever be, forever beAnd now you're running down my spine
Like a waterfall, like a waterfall
I want to write your name
On every wall, on every wallBut I believe in you
But I believe in you
But I believe in you, yes, I do
I believe in youUp and down the river
In a little boat, a little boat
All I need is you and a castle
All made of hope, all made of hopeI can walk through the doors of time
Scale any wall and cross any line
I can send any thought to the end of the finger
And burn any knot with a kissBut I believe in you
But I believe in you
But I believe in you, yes, I do
And I believe in youFrom the bottom of the root
To the top of the leaf, the top of the leaf
I can drink maple water
Anytime I believe, anytime I believeI was frozen, I was blowing
In a blade of grass
Of running out of honey
Of living in the pastBut I believe in you
'Cause I believe in you
I believe in you, yes, I do
I believe in you, yes, I doI believe in you
'Cause I believe in you
I believe in, I believe in, I believe in you, yeah
Yeah, I believe in you and I believe in you
