

Abolish Work

The (International) Noise Conspiracy

We must abolish work not just a cheap cliché
Just another trick to make the workers pay
We must erase the time line please baby please
We will end up dying on our bare knees We must destroy culture free commodity
Their executives are all that you believe, yeah
We must abolish work not just a cheap cliché
Just another trick We must abolish work not just a cheap cliché
Just another trick to make the workers pay
We must erase the time line please, pretty please
We will end up dying on our bare knees We must destroy culture free commodity
Their executives are all that you believe, yeah
We must abolish work not just a cheap cliché
Just another trick to turn us all into slaves Come on now, where you been?
I say open up you say let me in
Come on now, where you been?
I say please just say just say when Come on now, where you been?
I say open up you say let me in
Come on now, where you been?
I say please, just say, just say when Reject the time line, I'm losing my mind
Reject the time line, ooh we'll stay in line
Reject the time line, I'm losing my mind
Reject the time line, ooh we'll stay in line Reject the time line, I'm losing my mind
Reject the time line, and ooh we'll stay in line
Reject the time line, I'm losing my mind
Reject the time line ooh Yeah, yeah, yeah, I'm losing my mind
Yeah, yeah, yeah, I'm losing my mind yeah
