Swing Baby

The Scrotum Poles

Once you were together, now you're far apart
One who swore to love you has gone and broke your heart
But don't cry on your pillow, don't let it get you down
Put on that party dress go out and paint the townBaby swing, baby swing
It's easy as the lullaby your momma used to sing
Once you feel that rhythm you won't worry about a thing
Just swing, swing, baby swingThere's a juke joint down the highway past the city limit sign
Check your troubles at the door, go on and have a good time
The band can play the boogie beat so wear your dancing shoes
Let that old piano man pound away your bluesBaby swing, baby swing
It's easy as the lullaby your momma used to sing
Once you feel that rhythm you won't worry about a thing
Just swing, swing, baby swingOh baby swing, baby swing
It's easy as the lullaby your momma used to sing
Once you feel that rhythm you won't worry about a thing
Just swing, swing, baby swing, yeah swing, swing, baby swing
