

Badvibrations

The Black Angels

One, two, three, four

Can you tell a wish from a spell?

A hug from a lie?

They both make you feel so gone

We warned you from harm again

You're beating hearts again

We made love in June,

I heard it from you

You were my best friend

You used my name

Hit hard with harm,

She loves to off you then yawn

Never disarm, you know she loves to be drawn

You're leaching hard friend

I'm feeling down again

We made love with few,

I took it from you

You were my worst friend,

I felt that way

Braiding her hair,

You can tell her from here

Drink her last tear,

Yeah, you die for your dear

Bad vibes around her,

She's eating hearts again

We made love in June,

I heard it from you

You were my best friend

You used my name

(Inside, outside)

(Inside, outside)

(Inside, outside)

(Inside, outside)

(Inside, outside)

(Inside, outside)

(Inside, outside)

(Inside, outside)

(Inside, outside)

(Inside, outside)

(Inside, outside)

(Inside, outside)
