Overdose In The Hall Of Fame

Mnemic

I don't need to be like you
'Cause this place belongs to me
I'm far beyond the walls you see
My mind's ablaze and numb somehowSunrise as my mind it sets
On finding ways to block that river
It flows with the blood that is life
I got my mind made up, I shiverElectroshock these thoughts
Right through my brain
An obsession I can't killI don't want to kill my mind, it breathes
It feeds, I know it's doing well
The sacrifice will come soon enough
There's no evil underneath hereI don't need to be anything like you (Like you)
'Cause this place belongs to me
I'm far beyond the walls you see
(You see)
My mind's ablaze and numb somehowUnlike things that I control
I don't want to kill my feelings
I know you want me to get in line
And submit to your intentionsI don't need to be anything like you
'Cause this place belongs to me
I'm far beyond the walls you see
My mind's ablaze and numb somehow
