

Four Horsemen of 2012

Klaxons

There's a half man, half horse that still pollutes my thoughts
As he rides on a flame in the sky
He comes through the centuries with me on his entries
The kids and the cats watch him fly Please catch that half horse as he murders my thoughts
With fragments of flames anyway
Half man, half horse that still pollutes my thoughts
As he rides on a flame in the sky Four horse men
Twenty [Incomprehensible] There's a half man, half horse that still pollutes my thoughts
As he rides on a flame in the sky
He comes through the centuries with me on his entries
The kids and the cats watch him fly Please catch that half horse as he murders my thoughts
With fragments of flames anyway
Half man, half horse that still pollutes my thoughts
As he rides on a flame in the sky Four horse men
Twenty [Incomprehensible]
