Porcelain Raft

Before you choose the right words, before you even start to explain

That was the last thing to do

Tap dancing on the top-roof, hanging pictures on the wall

Ive got something here for youMaybe Ive never mentioned to you, it wasnt hard to run away from home

Thats at least what Ive shown to youI hope you are in a nice hotel, playing cards in your room

With someone who cares over youAnd Im glad you wanted to make it clear

You didnt mean to hurt anyone Im sure

No you didnt mean to hurt anyone Im sureCalling everybody that I loved the most

Telling secrets no one had to know

It wasnt me that stole some from youI read the news about someone that could only talk backwords

Strange enough I thought about you
