Hit or Miss

The Damned

met on the dance floor of the palais de danse feelin kinda lonley thought i'd take a chance i never thought it would turn out like this another case of hit or miss i gave you everything that money could buy things for your wardrobe things to get you high i never wanted you to bring it back i didn't see you stab me in the back another hit or miss another hit or miss another chance of hit or miss
and i was looking for a kiss when you were fallen i put up with a lot i took your cheating i took all you got the sun was setting for what he had got you took my money spent the whole damn lot
another hit or miss another hit or miss
why does it always end like this ?
and i was looking for a kiss dont be beaten dont you feel so down about the rumours that you put around i think i'll call this girl who lives nearby take her down and have another try another hit or miss another hit or miss anothr chance of hit or miss
and i was looking for a kiss (repeat to fade)
