Deception

Christina Grimmie

You didn't ever care for me
You didn't ever care for me, oh
You didn't ever care for me
You didn't ever care for me, oh
You didn't ever care for me
You didn't ever care for me, yeah

You unfolded your arms and you unclenched your fists and I dropped all my bags and then on that star I wished
What I would do,
what I would do to be loved by by you

And I opened the door and I watched as you looked at me with honest confusion and certainly unrelieved
What I would do,
what I would do to be loved by by you

You didn't ever, oh (you didn't ever care for me, oh)
You didn't ever, oh (you didn't ever care for me, oh)
You didn't ever care

So now I'm sitting here wondering why
You didn't ever care for me
You didn't ever care for me, oh
You didn't ever care for me
You didn't ever care for me, oh
You didn't ever care for me
You didn't ever care for me, yeah

I can't take back the bite
This fruit was not meant for me Deception and vice
At the finest I'd ever seen
But what I would do,
what I would do to be loved by by you

And the funny thing is, that I settled for the untruth just because I'm a slave to the fantasy of being in love
And what I would do to be loved by by you

Thinking it through now I see everything didn't I know it life with you's but a dream
But what I would do,
what I would do to be loved by by you

You didn't ever care for me
You didn't ever care for me, oh
You didn't ever care for me
You didn't ever care for me, oh
Ohh
Now I'm sitting here wondering why
You didn't ever care for me
You didn't ever care for me, oh
You didn't ever care for me
You didn't ever care for me, oh
You didn't ever care for me, care for me, oh
So now I'm sitting here wondering why

Lyrics provided by https://damnlyrics.com/