

Revenge

Lyria

Intense pain is what you make me feel
Suffering every day and night
Planning my escape is how I heal
And I will release my rage when time is right I was like a body with no soul
Living in a true nightmare I was so numb that I don't know Now I am stronger and more self-confident Nobody will pull me down again
All that I dreamed, all that I wanted
I will get finally my revenge You want me lost in this maze of mind
Melting dreams and piercing souls
Immersing in distress, becoming blind
But I'll unleash my anger and retake control
