

Nowhere Again

Secret Machines

Cellophane flowers never happened for me
I've been sleeping the day off, watching the night fall, covering nowhere
Filling my timeshare
There's a woman in the mirror in a fiery state
As she motions to me, I start turning a way
And she's lifting her dress up,
Trying to keep up

Oh, you'd be surprised!
How we race
While our lives
Erased

Another alone on an everyday night
Thinking the morning, looking for alright, warming blood flow with poison
I don't know why

Maybe the rain will stop following me
Dripping the colors, running the daylight, over the cloudburst
Hoping I don't burst

Right before my eyes!
Erased our lives
Erased

We know we're lost, we're lost, we're nowhere now
We know we're lost, we're lost, we're nowhere now
Now we know we're lost lost in nowhere now

Maybe the rain'll stop following me
With millions of colors reflected in daylight
Right on the kick drum
Turning the sound up, oh!
(Our lives) Another alone on an everyday night
I think in the morning I think I'll be alright (Erased)
Watching the blood flow
No wonder I don't know why (Our lives)
There's a woman in the mirror in a fiery state
She motions to me, I start pulling away (Erased)
She's lifting her dress up

All the way up, oh!

Don't look surprised

Erased

Our lives

Erased

Our lives

Erased
