Requiem (Hollywood Forever)

L.A. Guns

So glad to see you all again
I guess the memories never really end
Hope you can stay here for a spell
Heaven can wait or am I going to HellMy friends
The end has come and gone
Please stay all day
Lie on my lawn
And welcome to my neighborhood
Lifes like the beauty of a rose
That wilts and dies into eternal repose
Some get cut before their time
Like songs written with no final lineMy love my life
No need to cry
I'm here don't fear
We'll never die
And you know I'd kiss you if I couldSo many mysteries in an instant turned to naught
All promised destiny not promised as I thought
And all life's certainties cut short within a blink
Sometimes eternity comes sooner than you thinkThe day is done
Nights on its way
Goodbye for now
Please come again
It gets lonely in this airtight box of steelHollywood Forever
And welcome to my neighborhood.

Lyrics provided by https://damnlyrics.com/