

Mr. Smith

Nina Simone

don't you realize, Mr. Smith?
don't you realize what thirty dollars buy today? just some stockings, and that's it. I came from Havanah my mother was wild as you are she often said to me my child, don't sell yourself for just a dollar or two if you end up like me
god bless you, child so think it over for that little money you give to me, Mr. Smith
