Hands Of Time

Primal Fear

The hands of time are moving on
Didn't know its been so long
Clocks are ticking time away
I'ts sad to seeSo tired of waking up from this dream
I'm wishing that it would go on
Though I know it could be wrong
I keep holding on foreverWhen seconds turn into eternity
Screams become a sigh
That reigns my only friend
So unpredictable and yet so destined to lose it in the endThe hands of time are moving on
Didn't know its been so long
Clocks are ticking time away
I'ts sad to seeIts hard to say, I love someone
It's even harder that we're done
Now I've got nothing left to lose
My restless soul, except what I have wonThe hands of time are moving on
Didn't know its been so long
Clocks are ticking time away
I'ts sad to seeThe hands of time are moving on
Didn't know its been so long
Clocks are ticking time away
I'ts sad to seeTime is running
Time is running out
Time is running and takes the time awayWho was right and who was wrong
Who was cool and who was strong
When a cloud is turned to gray
When silence speaks louder than words
My sins are washed awayThe hands of time are moving on
Didn't know its been so long
Clocks are ticking time away
I'ts sad to seeThe hands of time are moving on
Didn't know its been so long
Clocks are ticking time away
I'ts sad to seeTime is running
Time is running out
Time is running and takes the time awayTime is running
Time is running out
Time is running and takes the time awaySo tired of waking up from this dream
I'm wishing that it would go on

Though I know it could be wrong
I keep holding on forever
