

Hung On a Rope

Brother Cane

Tongue tied, black eyed, left for dead
Obscene, vaccine, excites the head
Let it biteI bit your hand and spit it all in pieces
You're a lie
And now the truth comes outHad to leave you all alone
Now I leave you all alone (and you are)Hung on a rope
Out of the way
Hung on a ropeFenced in, split ends, can't get it right
I greased your machine will all my might
The thought of you is getting old
Agony I let it go
Let it go
Out of a hole I'm digging
You won't break me anymore
Now you can swing so proudHung on a rope
Out of the way
Hung on a ropeI bit your hand and spit it all in pieces
You're a lie
Now you can swing so proudHung on a rope
Out of the way
Hung on a ropeHung on a rope
Hung on a rope
Out of the way
