

Stories With Unhappy Endings

Hundred Reasons

Why tread so carefully?
For the fourth time, I'm okay
It pleases when you hear more
Stories with unhappy endings
Is your life so perfect that you
Would not fall down with crushed humility?
The sorrow of others that fuels you
To judge is a waste of all energy
These are my words for you
So listen carefully, stand still
Advice is always genius negativity
It's all you do
This is a mixture of clouded outtakes
I stopped treading carefully
I told you I was fucking fine
And tried to communicate
You sit there with covered ears
Do you have the grounds to shed tears
While I'm trying to get through to you?
It has to be said as we've done this before
And I won't go through it again with you
These are my words for you
So listen carefully, stand still
Advice is always genius negativity
It's all you do
This is a mixture of clouded outtakes
Burn this based on what you said to me
These are my words for you
So listen carefully, stand still
Advice is always genius negativity
It's all you do
This is a mixture of clouded outtakes
Burn this based on what you said to me
