Train -Train

Fielfraz

There's blood on the streets hunger and hatred wash your fingers and comb your hair in a new way everytime you feel like thisâ€¦

The wind in the trees asks the world for peace while someone's song becomes somebody else's war

Better take the first train every train
every train is a lovetrain

The bathroom sings in the afternoon me I'm hanging in the air like a strange perfume watching how the world flows through a weeping window

The rain speaks foreign politics and then it sounds as if it tries to spell my name

train-train-train-train-train-train you gotta blow on your horn, manâ€¦
